SUGGESTIONS

This article can be downloaded from <http://www.ijerst.com/currentissue.php>

- Government need to take appropriate measures to create awareness about schemes for women exclusively which helps for their education by giving
- more adds on schemes.
- It is not important to develop schemes, it is very important to follow up whether it is implemented effectively or not . Government should focus on follow up aspect in checking the effectiveness of schemes by visiting to rural areas and taking feedback about the schemes.

level can be create better Healthcare, improvement in commercial sector, so recently government of india launched “Betibachao, Betipadho” scheme to provide compulsory education to girls . To become independent and awareness and improve efficiency welfare
